The Court made the following:

ORAL COMMON JUDGMENT: (per GB.J.)

Both the Writ Appeals are filed challenging the interim order passed by the learned single Judge in WPMP.No.10467/2004 in WP.No.8044/2004, dated 27.4.2004 and WPMP.No.10563/2004 in WP.No.8115/2004, dated 28.4.2004.

2. The Department filed the above Writ Petitions challenging the order passed by the Industrial Tribunal in computing the wages of the employees and awarding certain sums. The learned single Judge while admitting the Writ Petitions directed the Department to deposit a portion of the amount awarded by the Tribunal. Against which the present Writ Appeals have been filed.

3. It is now brought to the notice of this Court that the Department has not even complied with the order of the learned single Judge and deposited the amount so far.

4. We have also heard the learned Government Pleader for Labour in this regard.

5. In view of the fact that the Department has not complied with the order of the learned single Judge and not deposited the amount so far, we do not find any ground to interfere with the order of the learned single Judge. We find no merits in both the Writ Appeals.

6. In the result, both the Writ Appeals are dismissed. No costs.
